HC Pacific Receives Fifth Consecutive Boeing Supplier Performance Award

Ontario, California, November 3, 2017

HC Pacific announced today that it had received the 2016 'Silver' Boeing Performance Excellence Award. HC Pacific has received either a gold or silver performance award for five consecutive years dating back to 2012.

"We are honored to receive Boeing's Supplier Excellence Award," said HC Pacific's Executive Vice President Chris Troy. "I am proud of the partnership HC Pacific has built with Boeing based upon trust, open communication, and performance excellence. This is our fifth year winning this prestigious award thanks to the dedication of the entire HC Pacific team."

HC Pacific is a leading global distributor of products and provider of intelligent supply chain solutions for over 45 years. Since our inception in 1971, HC Pacific has been a one-stop source for aerospace components, specialty raw materials, precision fasteners, and electronic hardware for various applications and platforms.
