

What HC Pacific's New Brand means to your supply chain.

Since our inception in 1971, HC Pacific has been distributing aerospace products and providing innovative supply chain optimization services across a broad array of military and commercial platforms.

Our new brand identity represents our full spectrum of intelligent supply chain solutions developed to answer a new set of challenges for today's OEMs, MROs, and Manufacturers. Our team prides itself on the level of service we provide, consistently minimizing working capital for our partners while improving availability, productivity, cost, and quality throughout the entire supply chain.

"The team at HC Pacific is tirelessly focused on building the best possible business around our core values of flawless execution, superior customer service, and highly innovative and flexible delivery systems and services," says CEO, Andrew Pramschufer.

Our partnerships free OEMs, MROs and Manufacturers of risk, supporting their ability to operate without distractions and focus on what they do best. While our commitment to our customers enables them to build and repair with the confidence of knowing every part comes with a pedigree-quality guarantee and every call is answered by people who deliver on their promises.

We believe in the power of lasting relationships built on trust, smart, sustainable solutions and a mutual commitment to our shared success.

"The HC Pacific brand and the dedicated people behind it empower the supply chain for both the manufacturers and customers that we serve."
